SECTION - A

- Read the following passage and answer the questions given below it :
"Your brothers died because they did not heed my words. They tried to drink water without answering my questions. Do not follow them. Answer my questions first and then you can quench your thirst. This pool belongs to me." It did not take Yudhishtira a moment to understand that there could be none other than the words of a Yaksha and guessed what had happened to his brothers. It took him no time to see a possible way of bringing them back to life. He said to his bodiless voice "Please ask your questions".

15. Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions set thereon :

Patience is better than wisdom, an ounce of patience is worth a pound of brains. All men praise patience but only a few can practise it. It is a medicine which is good for all diseases, but it is not every garden that grows the herbs to make it with. Many people are born crying, live complaining and die disappointed. They think every other person's burden to be light and their own feathers to be heavy as lead. In reality, it is their fancy rather than their fate, that makes things go so hard with them. Many would be well off, if they could but think so.

- i) What is a good medicine for all diseases ? 3
- ii) What is praised by all, but practised by a few ? 3
