Reading about weather in book is one thing, but living through a natural disaster was another. Even though the flood was not too bad, I was not prepared for what it was really like ! It was a rainy day but the adults in the house were getting very anxious. So I started to pay more attention to news on TV and radio. The meteorologists kept saying that the rain hadn't stopped in a long time, and it looked it was not going to stop anytime soon. When the next morning, I saw the water enter our basement, we all got worried. Dad said that the flood water is going to do adverse damage to our basement and we will need quite a lot of repair after the flood.

Questions:-

- i) Which natural disaster is mentioned in the passage?
- ii) Why were the adults in the family worried?
- iii) What did the meteorologists announce?
- iv) Make sentences with : Flood, Damage

OR

Write a précis of the following passage and give a suitable title."

Men and women are of equal rank but they are not identical. They are a peerless pair being supplementary to one another, each helps the other so that without one, the existence of another cannot be conceived. Therefore, it follows as a necessary corollary that anything that will impair the status of either of them will involve the equal ruin of both of them.
