Section-A

Read the following passage and answer the questions set below it :

- (A) With a satisfied expression he regarded the field of ripe corn with its flowers, draped in a curtain of rain. But suddenly a strong wind began to blow and along with the rain very large hailstones began to fall. These truly did resemble new silver coins. The boys exposing themselves to the rain, ran out to collect the frozen pearls.

(B) “It’s really getting bad now,” exclaimed the man. “I hope it passes quickly.” It did not pass quickly. For an hour the hail rained on the house, the garden, the hillside, the cornfield, on the whole valley. The field was white, as if covered with salt.

Not a leaf remained on the trees. The corn was totally destroyed. The flowers were gone from the plants. Lencho’s soul was filled with sadness. When the storm had passed, he stood in the middle of the field and said to his sons. “A plague of locusts would have left more than this. The hail has left nothing. This year we will have no corn.”

Read the questions given below and answer the questions that follow :

- (A) We all know that all work and no play makes Jack and a dull boy. It highlights the fact that play is as important as work. Leisure refreshes us to start our work with vigour and energy. It strengthens us for better achievements in our routine work. In most offices five-day week is observed. It aims to give the workers a respite from the hectic schedule of daily routine. It gives the workers a lot of time for rest and recreation.

(B) We are not in the habit of making proper use of our time. Most of the people waste their leisure time in idleness. They find it boring and monotonous than their daily routine occupation. They lack the knowledge of using free time productively and profitably. Leisure does not mean idleness. It never means wastage of precious time in gossip, gambling, drinking or wandering aimlessly. A good use of leisure shows the trait of a person.
