Up! Up! my friend and clear your looks,

Why all this toil and trouble?

Up! Up! my friend and quit your books,

Or surely you'll grow double.

Books! 'tis a dull and endless strife,

Come, hear the woodland linnet,

How sweet his music on my life.

There's more of wisdom in it.

Enough of science and of art;

Close up those barren leaves;

Come forth, and bring with you a heart,

That watches and receives.

Questions:

- 2) Why is the linnet said to be wise?
- 3) What does the poet compare the pages of a book to?

SECTION - C

- 14) Read the following passage carefully and answer the questions given below it:

[5]

Man is the architect of his own fate. If he makes a proper division of his time and does his duties accordingly, he is sure to improve and prosper in life, but if he does otherwise, he is sure to repent when it is too late, and he will have to drag a miserable existence from day to day. To kill time is as culpable as to commit suicide, for our life is nothing but the sum total of hours, days and years. Youth is the seed time of life. In youth the mind is pliable and soft and can be moulded in any form we like. If we lose the morning hours of life we shall have to repent afterwards.

Questions:

- 1) How can man succeed in his life?
- 2) What would happen if man fails to use his time properly?
- 3) Why is killing time compared to suicide?
- 4) Why is youth said to be the seed time of life?
- 5) Suggest a suitable title for the passage.

OR

Make a precis by reducing the passage into one third of its size and give a suitable title to it.

- 15) Your school has organised a 'Nature camp' to Kilad near Vaghai in Vansda Taluka. Draft a notice for the school board, inviting the students to participate.

OR

Write an e-mail to your friend telling him of the teacher you like the most in the school where you are studying.

- 16) Write a report on 'Inter-school' elocution competition organised by your school on the subject "Save the girl child". [5]

OR

You are Vaibhav Sharma. You have recently witnessed a house on fire in your street. Write a diary entry on your observation.

OR

You have recently participated in the blood-donation camp held in your town. Make a note of all that you had observed there.

SECTION - D

- 17) Write a letter to the editor of the newspaper about stray dogs and such other public nuisances on the road and footpaths in your city. [4]
