Score

5x1=5

I was almost back at my classroom door when I heard voices raised in anger as if in some sort of argument. I stopped. I didn't mean to eavesdrop, I just hesitated, not knowing what to do. I needed those shorts and I was going to be late, but I didn't want to interrupt an argument between my teachers. I recognised the voices: Mr. Schmidt, my History teacher and Mr. Boone, my Math teacher. They seemed to be arguing about me. I couldn't believe it. I still remember the feeling of shock that rooted me flat against the wall as if I were trying to blend in with the graffiti written there.

1. What did Martha hear when she reached near her classroom door ?
2. Martha hesitated to enter the classroom because _____.
 - (a) she was doubtful if she could take her shorts or not.
 - (b) she didn't want to interrupt the argument between her teachers.
 - (c) she would be late for her physical education class.
 - (d) she was afraid of the punishment her teachers would impose.
3. Who are the teachers mentioned in the passage ?
4. How did Martha feel when she realized that her teachers were talking about her ?

I heard a thousand blended notes,
While in a grove I sate reclined,
In that sweet mood when pleasant thoughts
Bring sad thoughts to the mind.

To her fair works did Nature link
The human soul that through me ran;
And much it grieved my heart to think
What man has made of man.

Walt Disney's journey to success started when he worked as a newspaper boy at the age of ten. Very early in life, he learned that work was something one should be passionate about. Delivering newspapers was not his passion.

He joined the army and then pursued a job he always wanted - a newspaper cartoonist. Unfortunately, Walt was denied the opportunity to work as a cartoonist by most of the leading newspapers. They said he lacked imagination. Soon he launched a company with a fellow cartoonist. But a month later the company closed down. Failure did not tie him down. He applied for a job at Kansas City Film Advertising Company. But the company rejected his application.

Finally he went to Hollywood and started Disney Bros. Studio. It was from there that Walt tasted success. Determined, he moved forward doing what he was passionate about. The Disney Company he founded has become one of the world's largest entertainment firms. Now, under his name there are theme parks, animation studios, and other colourful creations.
